Public Consultation and Involvement

1.0 PREFACE

Manitoba Hydro and the Nisichawayasihk Cree Nation (NCN) have developed a Public Involvement Plan (PIP) outlining their approach to public consultation (available as Appendix 1 to this Volume). This plan was submitted to federal and provincial regulators in August 2002. The PIP responds to Section 4 of the EIS Guidelines for the Wuskwatim Generation Project and the Wuskwatim Transmission Project, which asks the proponent to provide information about its public consultation and involvement program.

The Public Involvement Plan outlines the consultation undertaken with residents of Nelson House and members of NCN, as well as the broader consultation and involvement activities undertaken by both Manitoba Hydro and NCN beyond NCN members.

One integrated PIP was developed for both the proposed Wuskwatim Generation and Transmission projects. This Volume reports on consultation and involvement activities with both NCN and publics beyond NCN regarding the Generation Project (the Project). Section 3 of Volume 1 provides a review of the overall PIP and how it specifically relates to the Generation Project (the Project). This Volume 2 provides supporting appendix materials on details of the specific components of the Generation Project PIP. Further information on PIP activities related to the Transmission Project is provided in Volume 1 of the Transmission Project EIS.

The appendices are organized as follows:

- Appendix 1 Public Involvement Plan for the Wuskwatim Generating Station and Transmission Projects, as filed with the regulators in August, 2002
- Appendix 2 Presentations on the PIP to the Technical Advisory Committee
- Appendix 3 NCN Members – Consultation and Involvement Materials
- Appendix 4 Consultation and Involvement Materials, Beyond NCN: September – November 2001
- Appendix 5 Consultation and Involvement Materials, Beyond NCN: November 2001 – May 2002
- Appendix 6 Consultation and Involvement Materials, Beyond NCN: November 2002 – March 2003
